

Adam C Guerrero

September 12, 2004 - December 19, 2016

Alec Samuel Guerrero and Adam Christopher Guerrero, beloved sons of Arturo and Anne Guerrero, and close-knit brothers of Andy Guerrero, entered eternity on December 19, 2016. Alec was born on May 21, 2003, and Adam arrived just fifteen months later, on September 12, 2004. Both boys were born in Wenatchee, WA.

Alec was delightfully his own person. In predominant Seahawk country, he was a staunch Indianapolis Colts fan and rooted for Andrew Luck. He had a developing appreciation for art, a good math mind, and a propensity to speak his mind. Alec participated in the football, basketball, wrestling and track programs of the Quincy Junior High School over the last two years. Even as an 8th grader, he was college-minded and aspired to follow in his father's footsteps by attending Oregon State University.

Adam was a devoted fan of Real Madrid, the New Orleans Saints (especially Drew Brees), and was a skilled all-around athlete. He excelled in multiple sports, including football, soccer, and basketball, despite being diagnosed with type 1 diabetes at age 8. In recent months, Adam was taking increased steps to responsibly manage his type 1 diagnosis. Adam's soccer team, Quincy United, became a very important part of his life - not simply because they were a winning soccer club, but because of the special friendships he made on the team.

Both boys made a move from Wenatchee to Quincy in the summer of 2014, and had grown to love their schools, friends, and teachers. Alec and Adam were both proud to be Quincy Jacks.

We loved Alec and Adam so much and grieve as they were taken from us so soon.

Even in this, we have hope, through our faith in Jesus Christ, that we will see both of our beloved sons again in heaven.

Alec and Adam are survived by their parents, Arturo and Anne Guerrero; their brother, Andy; their grandparents, Roberto and Petra Guerrero of Wenatchee and Dick and Kathy Stone of Kennewick; aunts and uncles: Alma (Manny), Beto (Nikki), Raul (Dora), Jesus (Ana), Lupe, Isabel (Bobby), John (Jessica), and David (Hannah), and numerous beloved cousins.

A private Graveside Service will be held for family and close friends, and a Celebration of Alec's and Adam's lives is planned for Friday, December 30, 2016, at 11:00 a.m. at the Quincy Junior High School. Pastor Shaun McNay will be officiating. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
