

Adam Holcomb

September 19, 2002 - July 15, 2023

Adam Michael John Holcomb

September 19, 2002 – July 15, 2023

Adam Holcomb, 20, of Waterville, WA, passed away on July 15, 2023, after battling with extended illness. He was born in Wenatchee, WA, September 19, 2002, to Reid and Jenifer (Sprauer) Holcomb.

He attended Lee Elementary, Valley Academy and Waterville Schools. Of all his jobs, he loved farm work the very best. In his spare time, he enjoyed hunting, fishing and working on his vehicles. He served the Waterville area as a volunteer firefighter and loved the rush of running out the door when the fire tone went off.

Adam loved the Lord, his family and his friends so much. He gave the best hugs ever and was always generous with his love. His suffering is over, he now has Gods perfect healing.

Adam is survived by his parents Reid and Jenifer, of Waterville, brother, Isaiah, of East Wenatchee, sisters, Lainey, of Seattle and Rosemary, of the family home. He is also survived by grandparents, Larry and Claudia Holcomb, of Wenatchee; Joe and Anita Sprauer, of Withrow and many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

The Celebration of Adams life will be held at 1:00 PM, Saturday, July 22nd at the Waterville Lutheran Church, 203 S Chelan Ave., Waterville. Memorials can be made to the Douglas County Fire District #1 or the Waterville Ambulance.

Arrangements by Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
