Andrea Lynn Robins passed away peacefully on March 14, 2018, after complications from open heart surgery. Andrea was born, July 23, 1987, in Wenatchee, WA, to Jeffrey S. and Margo S. Peck, was a true miracle for us. We rejoice and are comforted in knowing she is in the arms of God, her heavenly father. She now walks before the Lord in the land of the living. She was a beloved daughter, mother, and wife. She gave all of her time and love to her children. Andrea was a "people pleaser" who was adored and cherished for her infectious smile and tiny laugh. Her heart was as big as life itself. She was always willing to help others. Andrea's gift to the world was her ability to see people's inner needs, and to put their needs above her own. She had a quick wit and a twinkle in her eye. She loved people unconditionally.

She attended Morgen Owings Elementary School, in the Lake Chelan School District, and she graduated, in 2006, from Brewster High School. Andrea was very active growing up. She loved swimming and swam for the Brewster Stingrays Swim Team. In Junior High she was active in volleyball, basketball, and track, and AWANA church ministry. She skied at Mission Ridge and golfed at Lake Chelan Municipal Golf Course. In high school, she played the flute in band and pep-band, was on the cheerleading squad, and varsity golf.

She was a four-year letter award winner, and finished 14th in the class 1A/B Girls' State Golf Tournament.

Upon graduation, Andrea attended North Idaho College, with a golf scholarship and also Wenatchee Valley College.

She earned her Certified Nursing Assistant Certification and worked at Harmony House, in Brewster, WA; and Bonaventure Senior and Assisted Living Communities, in East Wenatchee.

She was recently employed at Fred Meyer, in East Wenatchee, WA.

Andrea was preceded in death by Mary Ann Peck, Wenatchee, WA, paternal-grandmother; Richard and Elaine Student, Spokane, WA, maternal-grandparents; Chester and Marjorie Solberg, Scobey, MT, great-grandparents.
