

Angeline Schall Sabo

October 13, 1934 - December 28, 2011

Angie Schall - Sabo

Angie Schall Sabo 77, died Wednesday, December 28, 2011. She fought a brave fight and although her spirit was willing, her heart wasn't.

Angie was born on October 13, 1934 in Rugby, ND to Tony and Pauline Striefel and spent her childhood and received her education in Rugby.

On August 31, 1953, she married Leo Schall. In 1954, they began traveling around the country following construction jobs until finally settling in East Wenatchee in 1957. Angie and Leo started Schall Builders Construction in 1964. They built many homes throughout the Wenatchee Valley. In 1977, they purchased their first orchard. From 1983 until 1990, they owned and operated Schall Fruit Company. In addition, starting in 1979, they owned and operated Rock Island Golf Course until they sold it in 1988. She and Leo sponsored many sports teams throughout the valley. On November 25, 1994, Angie married John Sabo and they continued to make their home in East Wenatchee. Angie was a charter member of Holy Apostles Church. She was an active member of the Eagles, Moose Lodge and the VFW. She loved making her family happy, especially loved the holidays and lived for her grandchildren. Angie is survived by her husband John, four sons, Ken Schall (Amy), Kerry Schall, Darald Schall, and Dale Schall (Jeanine) and a daughter, Pam Orr (John).

She

had five grandchildren, Ryan and Devin Schall, Marcus Orr, and Kaley and Luke Schall, and 2 great-grandchildren Tessa and Kloey Schall. She has 3 brothers

Seb Striefel, Mike Striefel, and Andy Striefel. She was preceded in death by her husband Leo, her parents, and a sister. A recitation of the Rosary will begin at 6:30 PM Sunday, January 1, 2012 with a Memorial Mass that will follow on Monday, January 2, 2012 10:30 AM at Holy Apostles Catholic Church East Wenatchee,

WA. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA
