

Ann G. Clark

September 28, 1946 - July 28, 2017

Ann G. Clark passed away peacefully at her home in Wenatchee, WA on Friday, July 28th, 2017, surrounded by her family, after a long brave battle with cancer. Ann was born September 28th, 1946 in Stuttgart, Germany to Albert and Gertrude Pevarnek, two years before her family moved to the United States. She was raised with her 5 siblings in North Conway, NH before moving to the state of Washington in 1974 to raise a family of her own. Ann is fondly remembered for her friendly smile during her 13 years of work at the Leavenworth Safeway.

Ann was preceded in death by her parents, her brothers Christopher Pevarnek, Eric Hutter, and sister Andrea Grey.

Ann is survived by her son Ralph Shaw and daughter-in-law Tolene Seitz, of Wenatchee, WA; daughter Wende Clark of Wenatchee, WA; daughter Alyse Clark, of Seattle, WA, brothers Andrew Pevarnek of South Weymouth, MA; Albert Pevarnek of Scarborough, ME and two beloved grandchildren.

Her greatest passions were gardening, nature, and her family. True to her character, Ann lovingly tended to her garden every day up until the final days of her illness. A private service will be held and her ashes will be spread in her favorite lakes and mountain meadows. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
