Arthur Brian "Art" Ouellette

Arthur Brian "Art" Ouellette, 61, of East Wenatchee, WA, passed away following a sudden illness on July 7, 2014. Art was born in Bangor, ME, on August 30, 1952, to Herve and Dorothy Ouellette. He and his brother, Robert, grew up in various places, due to his father's military service. After high school, Art was drawn to Florida for agricultural work, which he continued to do for the rest of his life. He traveled extensively, but eventually ended up in the Wenatchee Valley. He enjoyed a simple life, working in orchards, gardening, watching sports, and raising his children. He made lifelong friends, and his giving nature will be dearly missed.

He is survived by his daughter, Alicia, 18, and son, Andrew, 17, both of East Wenatchee; his brother, Robert (Mary-Ann) of Albuquerque, NM; and his nephew, Brian (Kim) of Columbus, IN. He was preceded in death by the mother of his children, Debra Fry; and his mother and father, Dorothy and Herve.
