

Artie "Gene" Dyal

May 18, 1948 - December 1, 2021

It's with great sadness that we announce the peaceful passing of Artie Gene Dyal, a longtime resident of Wenatchee on Dec 1, 2021, in Wenatchee, WA.

Gene was born May 18, 1948, in Philadelphia Pa. to Art and Hazel Dyal. At a very young age Gene knew the meaning of hard work and did what it took to provide for his young family. That dedication and determination let to work as a mechanic for Alcoa Aluminum plant for over 40 yrs. Throughout the years, Gene loved to travel and spending time with family. He especially enjoyed a trip back to Sydney Australia in 1990 to visit family. He loved riding his motorcycle and taking his boys on many vacations including trips to Canada, Yellowstone and California to name a few.

Gene loved watching sports, and most importantly, watching his grandkids play sports. No matter which one it was you can bet Gene would be there ready to cheer them on.

Gene is survived by his wife Judy Nielsen of Wenatchee, his son Troy (Kim) Dyal of Pasco, his daughter-in-law Wendie Dyal of Wenatchee, his sisters Patty Palmer Kelso, WA., Dolly Adams of Castle Rock, WA., his grandchildren Justin Dyal, Miranda (Hunter) Collins, Colton Dyal, Logan Casch, Riley Dyal, great-grandkids Kyler Dyal and Macie Dyal, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Gene is preceded in death by his son Kevan, sister Joyce Cervantes, and his parents Art Dyal and Hazel Strowbridge.

A celebration of life will be Dec 17, 2021 at 2pm at Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
