“ I was sad to hear of Betty's passing. Betty was in charge of the church nursery when our family attended Wenatchee Valley Baptist Church. I believe she watched me in that nursery, and when I was older, I took my turn watching the younger kids too during church, coached by Betty of course. Betty loved those little kids, and I can still hear her saying "what does the ball say? It says roll me!" It wasn't easy wrangling all those kids dressed up in their Sunday best, but she was great at it. She was a very nice lady, and I know my Mom (Merlene Williams) and all her church friends thought very highly of her.
