

Beverly Jean Galeskas

June 2, 1950 - December 29, 2010

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

PB

“ I was so sorry to hear about a year ago that Bev was diagnosed with cancer. I was so hoping that by some miracle she would be able to overcome it. I know she didn't want to spend any time dwelling on it and I really respected that. I'm really sorry we've lost her.

Patricia Brunner - January 17, 2011 at 03:32 AM

PB

“ I met Bev about 15 years ago at Stitches West in Oakland (a knitting conference sponsored by Knitters magazine) in a sock yarn dyeing class with Lorna Miser. As many of you know, Bev was pretty quiet and reserved in a crowd but we did chat a little and I learned that Bev owned a knitting related company. Over the years I had a lot of opportunities to meet up with her again. I sponsored an annual Fall knitting retreat in for about 10 years and she began attending. It was always a joy to see her again and every time she came she gave me a gift. She was a very generous person. She was a tremendous contributor to the knitting world and launched several careers. I'll miss her cheery smile and lovely voice.

Patricia Brunner - January 17, 2011 at 03:25 AM

BM

“ Bev began her business shortly after our yarn business began, we shared many stories on the phone about the "growing" pains of your own business. I thought of her as a friend and respect and honor what she has done for our knitting world.

Barbara Marr - January 02, 2011 at 12:51 PM

AN

“ Bev Galeskas' name is well known to knitters for her ingenious patterns, which have become deservedly popular. I did not know her but I am sorry we have lost such a great contributor to the knitting universe.

Ann - January 02, 2011 at 01:33 AM

ML

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Bev's family. I just lost my mom to cancer and nothing can prepare you for it. Her felted clogs were the first felted projects I ever made and my daughter & son still compliment me on their slippers. I wish I had met her.

Melanie Lietz - January 01, 2011 at 02:40 PM

CS

“ I was sorry to learn of Bev's passing. She will be greatly missed in the knitting community. I still remember the bus trip over to Fibertrends a couple of years ago and what a great time we had.

Carol S. - January 01, 2011 at 12:42 AM