

Billy J. Hahn

June 15, 1945 - November 17, 2016

Billy Joe Hahn of Manson, WA, died November 17, 2016, at home surrounded by his family and Hospice team: Linda Hahn, Sue Ann Melone, Robin Bowens, Margaret Van De Sompele, Sue Ellen Bittle, and John Hahn. Bill fought a nine year battle with CNS lymphoma brain cancer. Bill was born in Memphis, TN, to Nancy and Arno Hahn on June 15, 1945. Bill graduated from United Township High School in 1963, attended Black Hawk College and studied Engineering. He worked at Commonwealth Edison as a Nuclear Station Operator from 1975-1980 in Illinois. He moved to Richland, WA, in 1980 and worked at Energy Northwest as a NRC Licensed Control Operator and Lead Quality Auditor until 2007. Bill was an avid outdoors man and enjoyed fishing, hunting, golf, camping and being with his family. Bill loved the Lord faithfully. He passed away peacefully at home with a view of the lake.

Bill is survived by his wife, Linda "his soulmate", at their home; daughters, Robin (John) Bowens of Peoria, AZ, Sue Ann (Kelly) Melone of Kennewick, WA, Amy Jensen of Portland, OR; son, Jaegar Hahn of Kennewick, WA, and Sam of Manson, WA. He is survived by seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild, who loved him very much; sisters, Sue Ellen Bittle, Kathy Biggins, Carol Jean Starcevich; brothers, Andre Hahn, John Hahn, Ed Hahn and Gus McCune. Bill was preceded in death by his parents.

Beazley

A private service was held November 18, 2016, in Wenatchee, WA, officiated by Scott Langager, Chaplain at Confluence health. Telford's Chapel of the Valley in East Wenatchee was in charge of services.

"Until we meet again, find peace in heaven's hands"