

Billy Wayne Moody

May 9, 1936 - November 12, 2015

Billy Wayne Moody passed away at his home in East Wenatchee, WA on November 12, 2015. He was born May 9, 1936, at Cross Roads, AR to parents, Garland and Anna Moody. He was of Baptist faith, a veteran and a member of the American Legion. He grew up in Cross Roads, AR, helping his father work at any job available to help support the family. His strong work ethic inspired many. While serving in the Army and stationed in New Orleans, LA, he married Lorene Stuart on August 27, 1960. They made their first home in New Orleans, LA, until his honorable discharge in 1961. When they moved to East Wenatchee, their daughter, Joy Lee was born on January 31, 1962. Billy worked in orchards until he started his job at Alcoa. He started buying orchards and worked long and hard hours farming, along with his Alcoa job. He retired from Alcoa, then slowly started selling his orchards to retire completely. He then devoted his time caring for his wife, Lorene. Billy had a love for any type of gun, and hunting was his favorite past-time. He loved all animals, especially his dogs and horses. Some of his best times were spent horseback riding with his friends. He is survived by his loving wife, Lorene of East Wenatchee, WA; daughter, Joy

(Mike) Prey of Orondo, WA; grandson, Stuart (Kristen) Prey of Spokane, WA; granddaughter, Brandie (Gordon) Maxwell of Spokane, WA; three sisters, Bonnie

Crosby of Melbourne, AR, Barbara Reves of Batesville AR, Kathy (Braden) Reeves of East Wenatchee, WA; and his true friend, Lonnie Baird. Preceding Billy in death were his parents; brother, W.C. Moody; sister, Wanda L. Baker and a nephew, Darrin Sexton. Billy will be remembered as the kindest, loving and generous of souls. He touched many lives with his quiet example of selfless service. Always giving, expecting nothing in return. A memorial celebration of life will be held Friday, November 20, 2015, at 3:00 p.m. at Telford's Chapel of the Valley. The family requests memorial contributions be made to "Wounded Warriors". Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
