

Brad Muller

February 1, 1963 - October 8, 2022

It is with extreme sadness that we announce the passing of Brad Muller, who after a valiant fight, lost the battle to cancer. Just like Brad dealt with all experiences in life, he managed his illness with strength and grace. He wanted to spend as much time with his family as possible. On his final day, he was surrounded by his family, who he adored more than anything else in the world.

Brad was born on February 1, 1963, in Oklahoma City, OK. Brad passed away on October 8, 2022, in Wenatchee, WA at the age of 59.

He graduated from Putnam City West High School in 1981 and attended Oklahoma State University. He received his B.A. from Southern Nazarene University. Brad started his career in sales in 2000, which led him to Wenatchee, WA. In 2005, he ultimately started working in the trucking industry up until 2022.

Brad had a passion for sports, whether playing or coaching them. When he realized his daughters traded in their high tops for pompoms, he shared his love and knowledge of football by coaching a local little league team. During the summer, he enjoyed floating the river, working in the yard, catching sunrises by the pool or playing softball. In winter, you could find him skiing Mission Ridge or snowshoeing if he wasn't watching a football game.

Brad always aimed to make people feel welcome, whether he was volunteering to help someone move, offering sage advice, or just being supportive to his loved ones and friends. He would often go above and beyond in any situation. Those that knew him can attest that he marched to the beat of his own drum and made his own path. He is loved by so many and his life and legacy will be remembered by all. Brad was fiercely devoted to his family and friends. His loved ones will continue to honor his legacy by living their lives to the fullest and cheering on the Cowboys! We take comfort in knowing he is now home in Heaven.

He is survived by his wife and best friend, Gina Muller, with whom he shared thirty-five years of love and laughter with. He is also survived by their two children: Taylor McGregor and husband Aaron, Kyli Muller and Zach Gallagher; three grandchildren: Myles, Mac and Tatum; father Jim Muller; sibling Susan Kollmorgen and brother-in-law Terry, mother-in-law Pam Parker, and sister-in-law Leah Cale (husband Walter); a host of nieces and a nephew; beloved circle of friends; and new found biological family: Larry, Jeffery, Robbie, and Judy.

Proceeding him in passing are his mother Sue and sister Stephanie.

Arrangements by Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.

“ He was a very loving and kind man and family was always first. He could make you laugh at any given time. My heart goes out to you Gina and the girls and their families. He will always forever be in our hearts. Brad just so you know I may root for the cowboys every now and then but only for you! Tracie & Glen Sagdal

“ Gina and girls, I am so so very sorry to hear about Brad. I loved living across the street from you guys! I have many good memories of Brad and all of you. Many times all I needed to do is call out from my yard and he would answer from his office. Always ready to help! My heart aches for you. Please reach out to me for anything!

“ So sorry to hear of Brad's passing. Such a fun, vibrant man that truly loved his family. I enjoyed every minute with Brad, on the phone or in person. Our hearts go out to Gina, Taylor, Kyli and all loved ones. Please let us know if we can be of any help, and know that our home is open should your travels ever bring you out to the Denver area. Peace, strength and comfort to all loved ones.

“ So sorry for your loss, Ken and I love you all and wish we could be there with you.
Our best memory with Brad is when you came to stay with us in Spokane and we stayed out all night at the Piano Bar! Next day Brad was up and ready for "GAME DAY!"
Love,
Kim and Ken
