Brad Bonwell

October 6, 1955 ~ February 16, 2014

Brad Bonwell died February 16, 2014, at the age of 58. He fought a long battle with courage and dignity. He was born October 6, 1955, in Wenatchee, WA to Gene and Marianne Bonwell. Brad met the love of his life, Cecelia Reinecker in 1974, and they married that same year. In 1979, their first child, Julie, was born, followed by Tom in 1982. Brad had worked in retail and the industrial supply business, but found his career at Community Action Council of Chelan/Douglas County Food Distribution Center to be his most satisfying job. He was an accomplished musician, as well as a song writer. His greatest passion was the guitar, which he spent many times with family playing and singing during holidays and events. He enjoyed teaching his grandson, Ayden, to play the guitar. He loved camping and fishing with his family as much as possible. He was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather and brother. He was a gentle man, who could make you laugh, enjoying his company anytime. Brad was baptized on February 6, 2014, and was looking forward to going home to rejoin his many loved ones.

Brad was preceded in death by his father, Gene Bonwell; mother, Marianne Bonwell; sister, Mari Flynn; niece, Carrie Falk; and nephew, Geoffrey Allen. He is survived by his wife, Cecelia; daughter, Julie (Chris Snyder); son, Tom; his much loved grandchildren, Ayden and Gracie; sisters, Linda Bonwell, Kathy (Tom) Arnold and Terri (Clay) Durham; brothers, Frank (Deb) Bonwell and David (Wendy) Bonwell; his special sister, Kerri Lyn Bonwell; and many nieces and nephews.
