“ They say when you find your soul mate there ment to come into your life for a time but not forever, but they come in to change you and teach you something, and Brent taught me a lot, but the best one was unconditional love. I loved him with everything in me. We loved hard and caught hard but never could stay away from each other for long I just can't believe I'll never hear his voice again I love you Brently Wilson. Rest easy, baby I pray God has you in his hands

“ I remember the first time I met you. You came into my office with your Dad looking for Kim & Jerry you was 5/6 years old. You walked right over to my desk and hugged me!!! Your dad was surprised he said you didn't do things like that
You have been part of my family for years — you've always called me Mom

“ Brent, I was crushed to hear this. I had just talked to you on Saturday. You were a good friend, one of the best anyone could have. You were a beautiful soul, and I'm so happy I had the chance to know you. I cherish our times together. We laughed so hard together. I have had some of the best times with him, and he touched a lot of lives. I loved to hear his life stories. The guy accomplished a lot of things through life, and I looked up to you. I envied your life; you had a good one for sure, and whoever got a chance to meet you, you touched them with your grace. I'm going to miss you so much. You were a good friend, and you had the voice of an angel. I loved it when you would sing. You were the best, Brent, and you had a lot of good memories and had a lot of cool things to show for your accomplishments. I loved this man with all my heart and he was so good to me and he spoiled me. I know I will see you again ❤️ You meant the world to me. My prayers and heart go out to his family. I never met anyone like Brent. What a giving man he holds a special place in my heart for life. Soar with angels, buddy. You were so special, and you dressed so nicely. I loved that about you, you always looked good. I'll miss you everyday until we meet again.

“ I adored Brent Wilson. He was a good friend and the best friend you could ask for. Brent helped a lot of people, and he was such a giving soul. I loved it when Brent would tell stories about his life, and they were the best stories ever. Brent touched a lot of lives, and he touched mine. I'll never forget this man. He was a good dad and had a lot of fun. We would laugh so hard. I'm going to miss you, bro. You were the best person I knew. Such a good singer. And when he'd tell his stories, I'd cry with him; that's how deep they were. He has a lot of cool things, especially his cars and motorcycles. He was as proud as peaches of what he had, and I envied him. I love you, Brent. You are going to be so missed by whoever got the chance to meet you. I'm glad I knew you and some of the best times ever, bro. This can't be real. Prayers and my heart go out to his daughters and whoever knew this awesome person. R.I.P., my bestest friend. I will never forget you, Brent. I'll see you again in heaven. Buddy, soar with the angels. Love you forever.
