

Bruce Darrin Sexton

April 12, 1966 - July 15, 2011

Darrin Sexton, 45, passed away suddenly on July 15, 2011. Darrin graduated from Eastmont High School in 1984. Then he attended WSU. He married the love of his life, Lisa Bailey (his high school sweetheart) in 1988, and became the loving and devoted father of Cole Wade Sexton on July 3, 1995. Cole was his greatest pride and joy. Darrin was always very active in Cole's sports activities, including coaching Little League and All Stars with his close friend, Dirk Lewallen. He was an outstanding role model for the youth in this community. His family was the center of his life and he enjoyed sharing his love of the outdoors with his family and friends while snowmobiling, camping, hunting and shooting. He was employed by the Douglas County PUD for 12 years.

Darrin is survived by his loving wife of 23 years, Lisa Sexton; son, Cole Sexton; father, Darrel Sexton; and mother and step-father, Kathy and Braden Reeves.

A Memorial Service will be held on Wednesday, July 20, 2011, at 1:00 p.m. at Eastmont Baptist Church, 400 S. Kentucky Avenue in East Wenatchee. Memorial donations may be made for Cole's College Education, c/o Cashmere Valley Bank. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.

“ Some of my memories of Darrin include throughout the years, glancing across the street and seeing Darrin & Cole playing catch. From the time Cole was just a "little leaguer" to the young man he is today. And of course the twinkle in Darrin's eyes when Lisa would walk into the room. The way life is suppose to be...
