“ Thank you, Bryan for an amazing vacation. You still hold the title for the best pick up line I ever heard. We met centuries ago, when I first turned 20. I'm an old lady now. And a grandma. But I still have so many memories of being young with the wind in my hair. Many of them, you were there. You always made me feel free and beautiful. You honored me in so many ways. I wish I had been more grateful before you left us. I never forgot you when you went back to Cali. I'll never forget the things you taught me and showed me when you brought me to Cali. I'll never forget you. Rest easy. I'll see you there.

Hey girl I'm so sorry to hear about your dad! I'd just seen him not too long ago. He came into my work and bought some candy. I hope you're doing ok! Big hugs!

“ My dad was an amazing man. He was a great father. He was my superhero. My dad was the toughest man I have ever new. Whenever there was anything really hard in life, Dad would say Keep a stiff upper lip ... So I'm going to keep a stiff upper lip, Dad.

“ Bryan was my first friend when I moved to Wenatchee around 1983. We rode motorcycles together and did plenty of fishing.

So many memories. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Bryan growing up doing some of his favorite things. He also loved duck hunting, riding his bike, etc. I remember that he used to take food from the pantry, put it into his backpack, and ride his bike down to the bridge. He was giving the food to a homeless man that lived under the bridge.
