Calvin C. MOON

Calvin died peacefully September 18, 2013 at Highline in East Wenatchee. He was born August 28, 1926 to Richard and Lena Moon in Purnell, OK; and at the age of 17 he hitchhiked from Oklahoma to Manson, Washington where he stayed and drove the school bus, worked in the orchards there and met his "to be" wife Doris Stanford. They lived in Manson until 1954 when they moved the family to Wenatchee settling in Malaga where they have lived since with their 4 children. Calvin worked at the Wenatchee Daily World and then on to the Seattle Times as a Country Circulation Manager. After retiring he had a small engine repair shop at his home in Malaga. Calvin was an avid horseman and was a member of the Chelan County Sheriff's Posse and his family was involved in Appleatchee . He was also a member of the Malaga Volunteer Fire Department and lifetime member of the Eagles. Calvin is preceded in death by his parents and 4 brothers and 3 sisters; also taken early was his son Duane Moon. He is leaving his wife of 67 years Doris; two sons Gene of East Wenatchee and Lonnie (Carole) of Puyallup and one daughter Karen (Dale) of Ritzville; 12 grandchildren and numerous great grandchildren. A Celebration of Calvin's Life will begin at 2:00 PM Tuesday September 24, 2013 at Telford's Chapel of the Valley Funeral Home on Grant Road in East Wenatchee. Donations may be made to the Chelan County Fire District #1 Volunteers P.O. Box 2106 Wenatchee, WA 98807. Happy Trails Dad. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA
