

Cameron Southard Ayers

March 22, 1991 - September 3, 2016

Cameron Southard Ayers, 25, was called home too soon to be with the Lord on September 3, 2016. Cameron was born March 22, 1991, in Wenatchee, WA. In junior high, Cameron played football and always had a love for the Seahawks. He attended Eastmont High School and went on to get his GED.

Cameron was a gentle soul and will always be cherished for his kindness, silly sense of humor and his love for his family and friends. He will always be remembered for his politeness and love for children. He was the kind of person who would give you the shirt off his back or his last dollar, if he thought you needed it. His bright eyes, contagious laughter and smile will always be with us.

Cameron is survived by his mother, Cindy Southard, East Wenatchee; father, Andres Busso, Wenatchee, WA; and his (ex) wife, Gail Boothe, East Wenatchee, WA; father, Ron Ayers, Cashmere; and his wife, Tammie Sargent; sisters: Sierra Ayers, East Wenatchee, WA, Natalya Busso, Ellensburg, WA; brothers: Jorge Busso, Vancouver, WA and Luis Busso, Las Vegas, NV; as well as sister,

Haley

Sargent, Anchorage, AK and brother, Jared Sargent, Spokane, WA; lots of cousins and many friends.

Cameron was loved by many and he will always remain in our hearts and memories. We miss you Cameron.

Memorial Service will be at Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA, on Saturday, October 15, 2016, at 2:00 p.m. Arrangements by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA.

“ I remember when we went to gym and we played basketball and ran around. That was a good memory.

“ Cameron is an old soul who will always be missed. His smile was so contagious and his heart was full of love and compassion. Cam is a warrior and a kind friend during the brief amount of time we shared together and I thank god for that.

Prayers for you and your family.

Elena

“ My prayers to family in your time of loss. I knew Cameron and he was a very kind and gentle soul. I considered him a friend. This is a very sad time for me as well. I especially send prayers to Andy who I will always call my friend. My GOD comfort all of you and protect you. God bless you all, your friend Chris Lippert
