After an 8-year battle with Alzheimer's, Carl A. Heath went home to heaven. He was born in Twisp, WA on February 20, 1935, to Willis and Ella Heath, being number 7 of 10 children. He graduated from Twisp High School and enjoyed playing sports. After graduation, he was drafted into the Army, where he served for 3 years. Shortly after returning home, he met and married the love of his life, Di Ann, and they soon started their family.

Carl was a very loving, devoted husband and father. He was quite active in his children's lives, coaching sports and being a scout leader. He was also a very loving and playful grandfather and great-grandfather. He took great pleasure being involved in his church.

Carl is survived by Di Ann, his wife of 61 years; children Tim (Vicki); daughters Shari (Rick) and Rosie; grandchildren Steve (partner Lindsey), Lisha, Tara Michelle (Mike), and Kyle (Brittney); great-grandchildren Lilly, Mason, Jayden, Genevieve, Jackson, Brianna, Hayleigh, Brooklyn, Christy, Dev, Tifiney, Daniel and Jonathan; Great great Grandchildren Wyatt, Ryan, Sam and Brin.
