“ Aunt Carmen gave me a special time and memory in my life I have and will cherish to the end of my time. Or beyond.

An accident with my first born sons baby things, cloths, play pen, little swing, Xtra diapers, all in the back of my pickup close to the cab to keep them dry as we crossed the mountains to her house attend a funeral.

I flipped a cigarette out during the drive, felt warmth on the back of my neck, to find everything on fire in the bed of the pickup. All ruined just a few diapers and change of cloths left in the cab with us. We had no money Newley married barely money for gas.

Aunt Carmen took us to JC. Penny's delighted herself with picking out new cloths a swing, play pen and diapers and whatever else she could find.

Took out her credit card and payed the bill.

Rest in Peace aunt Carmen. John 14-versus-2-3 welcome
