

Carollyn Tracy Jean Hughes

June 29, 1945 - March 12, 2013

Carollyn Jean Hughes

Wenatchee, WA

Most beloved wife, mother and friend, Carollyn Jean Hughes, a lifetime resident of Wenatchee, WA, fell asleep in Jehovah's memory on Tuesday, March 12, 2013, at Central Washington Hospital after a long battle with complications from diabetes. Carollyn was born in Duluth, MN on June 29, 1945, to Fred and Ruth Maydole. They moved to Wenatchee in 1948. Carollyn met her life-mate, Robert Hughes, in Wenatchee; they were married on August 7, 1961, and they had two sons, Todd and Eric. She worked at the Bel-Air Motel, R.F. Tapplets, Hearthstone Retirement Home and owned the Minn's Tavern with her husband. She loved taking trips in her motorhome with her husband and dogs to the ocean. She loved collecting bells, dolls and was an avid quilter, gardener and crocheter. She loved butterflies, the color purple and roses, and spring time was her favorite season. Carollyn studied the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses for two years and was baptized on September 8, 2001. She especially appreciated learning from the Bible the truth about what happens to us when we die, we look forward to seeing her again during the resurrection. Carollyn also enjoyed sharing Bible truths with her neighbors in the Wenatchee area and spending time with all the friends.

Carollyn is survived by her husband, Robert, whom she lovingly called "Bobby"; son, Todd and wife, Allison, and their children, Christina, Stephine, Kurtis and Alex; son, Eric and wife, Barbara, and their children, Chad, Brandi, Robyn and Nickolas; and their nine great-grandchildren; siblings, Lois Dillon, LeonaMay Slater, Dale Laird, Darlene LaRue and Marlene Roberts; and many nieces and nephews. Carollyn was preceded in passing by her parents, Fred and Ruth Maydole; birth mother, Eileen LaBell; father-in-law, Jess Hughes; brother, Butch Laird; brother-in-law, Bud Dillon; and niece, Debbie Dillon.

Everyone who knew Carollyn loved her. She will be missed by all. Carollyn's family wants to thank all who were able to attend her memorial, and for the kind and loving support of the extended family, friends and community.