

Charles Henry Mylius

June 29, 1924 - October 24, 2012

Charles "Chuck" Mylius died peacefully on October 24, 2012, surrounded by his loving family. Chuck was born on June 29, 1924, in Wenatchee, WA to Anna Louise and C. Henry Mylius. Chuck grew up on the family orchard, before being called to serve in the U.S. Army during WWII. During his enlistment, he was a student at the city college in New York, where he studied engineering. When called to active duty, he was sent to the Belgium and German front, where he was wounded by shrapnel. After a short stay in a Paris hospital, he was sent stateside to Fort Lewis. His injuries earned him a Purple Heart and an honorable medical discharge. In 1950, he married Ruth and they began their life together, having three daughters, Carole Mylius, Barb Mylius (Dave) Thornlund and Marilyn Mylius. A devout Catholic all his life, his faith was strong and he loved his church, along with his family and friends. He was a wonderful father, spending many days at the family cabin at Lake Wenatchee. Chuck loved to ski, travel and truly was a jack of all trades. As his daughters grew, Chuck and Ruth were blessed with four grandchildren, Jennifer, Kimberly, Clayton and Laurel, and then seven great-grandchildren. Chuck loved to laugh and always had a smile on his face; he had a delightful sense of humor. If you were fortunate enough to know Chuck Mylius, you were truly blessed. He was a wonderful husband, father and a true gentleman. He will always be missed and remembered forever.

A Service of Remembrance will be held in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, located at 625 S. Elliott in Wenatchee, WA, on Friday, November 2, 2012, at 11:00 a.m., with Fr. Tom Kuykendall officiating.
