

Charles Donald Packwood

June 20, 1949 - April 13, 2016

Charles "Charley" Packwood, age 66, of East Wenatchee, WA passed away peacefully, Wednesday, April 13, 2016 at his home with his family by his side. Battling Cancer for the last two and one-half years, Charley's passing comes the same day 14 years after the death of his son, Bobby. Charley was born on June 20, 1949 in Virginia and raised by his parents, Donald and Pearlina Packwood of Wenatchee, WA. He was a life-long truck driver that led him and his family all over the United States, but Wenatchee and the Valley was always his home. His job let him do something he loved and it allowed him to explore and see the country. Charley met and married Kara Melcher on October 6, 1979 in Wenatchee, WA and had three boys: Steve, Chris, and Bobby. In 1998, he went back to school and got his GED at the same time as his son, Chris. They graduated together in June. Charley loved to play guitar and spend time with his family. You could always find him socializing and having long conversations with his family and friends

Charley is survived by his wife, Kara Packwood; sons: Steve Tilotson (fiance' Aimee Emerson), Chris and Sara Packwood; mother, Pearlina Packwood; sister,

Linda Reidt; brothers: David Packwood, Dale Packwood; grandchildren:

Elizabeth, Robert, Sarena, Andy and Stephanie; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his son, Bobby Packwood and father, Donald Packwood.

A Celebration of Charley's Life will be held at Telford's Chapel of the Valley in East Wenatchee, WA on Friday, April 22, 2016 beginning at 1:00 p.m. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA.

Tribute Wall

CB

“ Kara I AM hoping you will remember mel was in Colonial Vista about15 years ago . You were my aid.My husband Brian also knew charlie when he lived on viewdale.MAY I send my condolences I live in SNOHOMISH now

CAROL BONNICKSEN - April 18, 2016 at 05:00 PM