“ I was introduced to Chuck Pickle (dad) by my fiance, Todd and enjoyed the great pleasure of being acquainted a few times when we traveled to our home state. Chuck was gracious toward me and even through great pain and illness his eyes sparkled his mind sharp, his stories dear to hear. I will not forget him nor the imprint he left on my Todd. He was the only father figure Todd ever knew. We will both miss him dearly and I know Todd will always cherish the memories that made together.
I am so to his children and family.
God bless each of you.
