“ I was deeply saddened to hear about the loss of Claretta. She was a grand lady. I feel honored and blessed to have known her, as did my mom. They were truly the best of neighbors to each other. I will always remember how she baked her Graham Streusel Coffee Cake, and a chicken casserole for my family when my dad died in 1997. Two of my nephews walked over to her house to collect them as we had 11 inches of snow on the ground. That coffee cake is a family favorite and everytime I make it I think of her. In fact, our family has renamed it "Claretta's coffeecake".
I still have the philodendron plant she left with my mom when she moved to Washington. It is alive and thriving.
My most heartfelt condolences to you and your family. I know that you have many fond memories of her; cherish these as you move forward. Sincerely, Sugar Davis

“ My condolences and sympathy to the family of Claretta. She and her husband lived next door to my parents as I grew up back in Marysville, Ks. After each of their husband's passed, they always would check on each other, as well as house sit if the other one was out of town. I will always remember during snow storms after Jesse had passed. I had two jobs(with dad's help) to clean the sidewalks/driveway of our house, and then I would have to go over to clean off Claretta's driveway. She always would keep an eye on me, and would always offer to pay me, but I was under strict orders not to take any money. It was always a great comfort to my siblings and myself years later after my dad died to could count on Claretta to keep an extra eye out on our mom.
