

Clyde R. McCaw

March 5, 1949 - September 20, 2015

Clyde R. McCaw, our beloved husband, father, grandpa and friend, moved to heaven to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, early Sunday morning, September 20, 2015, surrounded by his family. Clyde was born March 5, 1949, to John and Alene McCaw in Walla Walla, WA. He graduated from Eastmont High School in 1967. Then went on to serve in the United States Navy, in Vietnam, on the USS Sanctuary. He returned home, in 1971, to meet the love of his life, Pam, whom he married the following year, in April 1972. He attended Wenatchee Valley College to earn a degree in Refrigeration HV/AC. He served the Wenatchee Valley as owner and operator of Climate Engineering since 1976.

Clyde is survived by his wife, Pam; daughters, Sarah Rinker (Shane) and Mandy Wright (Brandon); granddaughter, Cali; and brother, Clay McCaw. He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Alene.

A memorial service will be held on Friday, October 2, 2015, at 2:30 p.m. at Columbia Grove Covenant Church, 19 McElmurry Lane, East Wenatchee, off Sunset Highway. In lieu of flowers, a memorial fund has been set up at Cashmere Valley Bank, as the Clyde McCaw memorial fund. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.

My prayers, thoughts, and love are with all of you at this time. I know that you can take comfort in the fact that we all see Clyde again. I have known him since high school. He was a wonderful man of God.
