

Cora Eidson

March 8, 1925 - September 9, 2015

"Liz" Eidson

Wenatchee, WA

Cora "Liz" Eidson, born in Wenatchee, WA on March 8, 1925, passed away on the evening of September 9, 2015, surrounded by family.

Liz grew up in Monitor, WA, the youngest of eight Mabie children. She attended school in Monitor and Cashmere, WA, graduating from Cashmere High School in 1943.

Liz worked for the Chelan County Library for several years and then moved to South Carolina to work for DuPont. There, she was married and her son, George, was born. In 1957, they moved back to Wenatchee and the mountains she loved.

Liz retired from the North Central Regional Library after working 42 years. She really enjoyed seeing her grandchildren grow up, watching all the activities they took part in and the friends they made. She was very independent and enjoyed living at home and seeing her mountains.

Liz is survived by her son, George and wife, Janet; daughter, Carol and husband, Andy Ahle; grandson, Chad Eidson and his wife, Emily; grandson, Joshua Eidson; grandson, Cory Ahle and wife, Chelsey; granddaughter, Amy and husband, Chase Inman; and great-grandson, Sam.