

Court Haugen

March 11, 2009

Our sweet man has chosen to leave our world that had him disenchanting. He was a blessing from the moment he was created. Even at his worst, we chose to see his best.

He was a focused, hardworking soldier and his friends felt safest in the field when he was with them. As hard of a shell he created to wear, or as mean as he tried to be in Iraq, he had a most tender heart, which had broken and he kept it to himself. His buddies called him flat out nice. The people his life impacted are now impacting and healing our family and the family within Court's world.

We absolutely know he is in a better place and healed from the battle.

We see him in every path our day takes us. Keep your eyes open, he is there. He had friends who were more like family and family who loved him, no matter what.

Court loved the outdoors. A Memorial Service & open house will be held Sunday, March 29, 2009, 2:00PM at the home of Robin & Keith Huffaker 1029 Castlrock, Wenatchee, wa 98801

“ I know most of you won't know who I am, I am one of Kathe's many on line friends. I am so sorry to hear of your loss of Court. I can't even begin to comprehend the heart ache you feel. I know you will miss him greatly. I know he was a very brave and proud young man, you will always carry that with you as well as the many memories you cherish of him. May God Bless and keep you through this time.
Sincerely,
Pam, Kathe's Friend

The power of God protects us. The presence of God watches over us.
