“Cyndi was such a fun, positive, and vibrant lady. I always enjoyed talking with her in person or on Facebook. Her and Ashley were so close, and I loved to hear about their adventures to the ocean or just hanging out around town....it made me so happy to see them cruising around town together, or having fun with little Kaiya. My heart breaks that Cyndi is gone so soon, but I am glad she isn't suffering from illness any longer. I know her family misses her every second of every day, and I hope they find comfort in that Cyndi is with many of us in our hearts and thoughts, and that her memory will live on in through her family and friends. She will not be forgotten, and she will be missed so very much by the people she touched in her life.”

“I was working with Ashley and became very fond of her. I met Cyndi shortly after and immediately liked her. She was my kind of person. She made me feel happy when visiting with her and she also brought us goodies at Christmas. I know what a good Mother she was with Ashley being the great person she is today. I am so very sorry we lost her, she really battled hard, knowing she would have to leave her family and that cute Kaiya. I will always remember her smile and great personality. So long Woodstock, peace be with you. Love to All”

“ We first met Cyndi when she was planning her daughter's wedding. Ashley and Cyndi came into the shop and tried on wedding gowns. We asked Ashley to do a photo shoot for us, and her Mom joined her, bringing her own camera she just got. She got some fantastic shots of Ashley and the other models too. We had fun at the photo shoot and got to know each other.

As they planned the wedding, Cyndi would stop by the store on her own and show us what décor she had planned, and all her latest projects for the wedding. She was so excited, and you could tell she loved the planning, and wanted to make it so special for Ashley. She was so very proud of her daughter, they really had a close relationship. After the wedding was over, we were sad that she wouldn't be popping in so often.

We enjoyed visiting with Cyndi, and considered her our friend. We were also friends on Facebook, and she would comment on our business posts, and our family posts too.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Ashley and her family. We know there some tough days ahead of you, because you will miss her so much. Just remember the best way to honor her memory, is to take care of each other, the way she would have. She's watching over you now, and isn't hurting anymore.

“ My heart is just breaking, I just seen that Cyndi had lost her battle and that just broke my heart as I know she loved her family so very much.

Cyndi and I went to school together and had so many good times.. she was such a wonderful friend. Then when I got married and moved away we lost track. I was so happy to reconnect on facebook.

“ Some people minimize the benefit of social media. For me, I am so grateful for it. Cyndi and I had not seen one another since high school, but through Facebook we reconnected and our friendship grew. We shared of our lives since school, the joys and the struggles, the little things that meant so much and our hopes for the future. We talked of her cancer some, but more than anything we talked of the joys of family and friends. She loved her family soooooo much and she loved any activity that involved them. Time spent at Westport, canning fish that Mike caught, Ashley's engagement and wedding, the birth of Kaiya, the support of family and friends during her fight with cancer, etc. It is those memories that I will hold dear, for those memories make me smile and make my heart swell. Godspeed my friend. One day I'll see you on the other side. I'll look forward to giving you the hug I wish we had been able to exchange during the past few years. 💖
