

Daniel Ray Silva

December 1, 1952 - October 22, 2011

Daniel R. Silva, 58, of Vancouver, died Saturday, Oct. 22, 2011, in Wenatchee.

He had lived in the Vancouver/Portland area for 25 years. He had owned a tire business and was a longtime truck driver for St. Vincent de Paul.

Survivors include his children, Angela James of Wenatchee, Shawn Silva of East Wenatchee, Jason Silva of Portland, Rachel Silva of Bellingham and Jesse Silva of Vancouver; his brother, Richard Silva of Portland; his sisters, Danette Anderson of Vancouver and Robin Samms and Debbie Ritchey, both of Kalama.

A celebration of life service will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday at the Wenatchee Valley Praise Center, 435 S. Mission St. in Wenatchee.

Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.

Tribute Wall

RJ

“ Grandpa I know heaven is a million times better than suffering down on earth grandpa I hope your having a wonderful time in heaven F.I.P fish in ponds or F.I.P fish in peace

Randy Vaughn James jr - October 28, 2011 at 04:36 PM

BM

“ Danny I pray you have found peace, and are free of any pain you may have acquired here while god loaned you to us. We hope the reward you receive for the love you shared with us, is equal to the love that you gave us. Mostly I pray for your family's sorry and since of loss, you will surely be missed by them the most. R.I.P. Brother.

Brad La Mar - October 26, 2011 at 12:42 PM

RJ

“ F.I.P Fish in Peace. Enjoy those golden lakes in heaven. You will be missed

Randy James - October 26, 2011 at 10:30 AM

RS

“ YOU'LL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN..

RICHARD SILVA - October 25, 2011 at 08:47 AM