

David Cromwell

December 6, 1955 - December 18, 2015

David Cromwell, age 60, sailed from his homeport to be with the Lord Jesus on December 18, 2015. His three year battle with cancer was at an end. David served in the U.S. Army from 1975 to 1990 as an infantryman and tugboat operator. His service included three years in Panama and stateside assignments at Ft. Lewis, WA. and Ft. Eustis, VA. He joined Military Sealift Command in 2002 and moved through worldwide assignments as an engineer. He enjoyed seeing new sites but always returned to the home he constructed in Leavenworth.

He was born to Kenneth and Louise (Loveless) Cromwell on December 6, 1955 in Hoopa, CA. He was preceded in death by his brother, Charles Cromwell, and son,

David E. Cromwell, Jr. He is survived by his wife, Sheila (Holland) Cromwell; daughters, Murrya Cromwell (David), and Heather Cromwell (Ben), stepson, Allen

Walker (Heather); and stepdaughter, Christina Horner (John). Papa David leaves behind ten grandchildren, Samantha, Baelee, Ty, Jennifer, Shaun, Evan, Ethan, Owen, Emilie, and Oliver. His parents, Kenneth Cromwell (Lore) and Louise Cromwell; four brothers, Ralph (Jill), Kenneth (Cindy), Mike (Catherine), and Timothy (Mandy); and one sister, Kelly Courter (Rick), will miss him as well. David had many nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts and uncles he thought and spoke highly of.

A Graveside Service will be held on Tuesday, December 29, 2015 at 12:30 p.m. at Mt. Tahoma National Cemetery in Auburn, with full military honors. No flowers are requested. Donations can be made to the American Cancer Society or Seattle Cancer Care Alliance. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
