

David Lewis

March 16, 1913 - November 4, 2009

David E. Lewis passed away November 4, 2009. He was 96 years old. He was born March 16, 1913, at Bothell, WA. He was the seventh child of David T. and Clara Lewis. He lived in Bothell until 1954. In 1935, he married Louise Sturdevant. They celebrated 74 years of marriage. They were blessed with two sons, Tom and Jim. The family moved to Redmond in 1954, where they lived 32 years. They moved near Monroe, where they lived 6 years, then to East Wenatchee in 1993. He retired from Olympian Stone in 1978, at Redmond, WA. David loved fishing and camping.

He is survived by his wife, Louise; two sons, Tom (Carol) Lewis of Wenatchee and Jim (Sue) Lewis of East Wenatchee; one sister, Ruth Halliwell of Ellensburg; four grandchildren, Tammy West of Bellevue, Jeff Lewis of Bothell, Duane Lewis of Monroe and Lisa Coburn of Moses Lake; five great-grandchildren, Kelcie and Taylor Hahn, both of Monroe, Seth Coburn of Moses Lake and Elexa and David Lewis of Ephrata; also the grandchildren's mothers, Kathy Lewis of Monroe and Carole Lewis of Bothell; three step-grandchildren, Heather Jacobson of Wenatchee and Dee Dee and Lindy of Mill Creek; and several nieces and nephews.

A Family Gathering will be held at a later date.