“ Dave and I met in 1995 when our daughters were schoolmates, we had an immediate connection. Due to my long and frequent trips away from home we didn't get to hang as much as we would have liked. Dave was always there for Terri and I, over the years he took care of many problems around the house for us in my absence. No matter how long we might go talking, when we did hook up it was like we talked yesterday. Dave was a good man and a great friend, I will miss him dearly
