“ We are sharing your loss and remembering Dave's success' and his struggles fondly through the years. As you know Dave touched many lives, his empathy, understanding and care for others often before his own needs were inspiring. I truly wish I could share some of these mental pictures of Dave with you but I know that my words would fall short in describing the memories I have. Dave's spirit will live on in many people's hearts. With our thoughts and prayers-----
