

Dayna Ray Cunningham

October 30, 1978 - January 18, 2012

Dayna "Bug" Ray Cunningham

East Wenatchee, WA

Dayna "Bug" Ray Cunningham passed away January 18, 2012, at Central Washington Hospital at the young age of 33. She is a cherished wife, loving mother, daughter, granddaughter, sister, aunt and friend. She attended school in the Wenatchee Valley and later graduated from the University of Washington's dental program with honors and proceeded to work in the King County area, before returning to the Valley in late 2005. She married her longtime sweetheart and best friend, Franklin D. Cunningham, on July 30, 2005, and together they had one child, Cayn A. Cunningham.

She is the loved daughter of Ray and Debra Matthyssens, Franklin Sr. and Carol Cunningham and Jay Delosreyes; she leaves behind her loving brothers, Chris Matthyssens and Brandon Cunningham; and grandparents, Dale and Betty Cunningham, "known to many as Grandma and Grandpa Pink"; and many nieces, nephews and friends.

Dayna leaves behind a legacy and a love that will never be forgotten. She was the most caring, compassionate and giving woman with a heart of gold; Dayna was the person who could make you laugh and cry all at the same moment and was known to embarrass you, all in the name of fun. She lived her life to the fullest and taught her loved ones "That Life's a Dance" and to always "Live, Laugh and Love." She will be Deeply Loved and Missed by many.
