

Della-Mae Gertrude Weaver

November 12, 1919 - July 10, 2012

Della-Mae Weaver, 92, of Wenatchee, died Tuesday, July 10, 2012.

She had resided in the Wenatchee Valley for five years. She had worked in the fruit industry and had been a homemaker.

Survivors include her children, Shirley Graf of Cashmere and Raymond Weaver of Fort Mohave, Ariz.; and her sister, Maxine Henry of Napa, Calif.

A service will be held in California at a later date.

Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.

Tribute Wall

SG

“ I found this going through Mom's photo album. It is from an High School English class and I rewrote this with corrections as only received a B /B- on the paper! Hopefull it is written correctly now!!

My Mother -

My mother was at the graceful age of 31 when I made my entrance into this world that has become so crooked in the last few years.

When God made her, he put her together with black hair and brown eyes. Her hair, which has turned to a very pretty color, tends to maker her look much younger than she is.

My mother married my dad in 1940, and they have had a very happy life, with the two exceptions! In April of 1942, one of the exceptions was born - my brother. Eight years later, in October of 1950, the other exception was born - me. My dad told her not to work unless she had to, and she never has since she has had those exceptions.

They bowl together on a Tuesday night league. Then my mom bowls again on Thursday with a bunch of noisey women. They scream and yell until they frighten the pins so much that they have to fall! Really they are just a bunch of nuts!!

Most of all she likes to work in the yard where she can communicate with all the bugs and flowers. She has quite a time, expecially when she comes in all dirty; just covered with mud! She complains that they had a mud fight and you can just figure who won!

She is a very nice, understanding, and thoughtful. I don't believe that I would trade her for anything.

Shirley Graf - August 03, 2012 at 04:32 PM

SG

“ Mom, I so miss you and I'm sorry you had to go through so much these last 5 years. I know you are with Daddy now and are at last at peace. Love, Your Daughter

Shirley Graf - August 03, 2012 at 04:09 PM

SG

“ Della-Mae Gertrude Weaver

Shirley Graf - August 02, 2012 at 03:22 PM