

Dennis D. Rushing

August 6, 1946 - March 27, 2022

Dennis DeWitt Rushing passed away at home on Sunday, March 27, 2022. Dennis was born to Gordon and Myrtle Rushing August 6, 1946 in Wenatchee.

He grew up in Chelan and entered the Navy in 1966, serving in southeast Asia during the Vietnam War.

Dennis was employed by Cascade Helicopter Service in the 1980s and then as a field man in Royal City before working at the Dept. of Agriculture in Wenatchee until 2015 when he retired.

He was an avid fisherman and thoroughly enjoyed his friends and family.

Dennis married Dayle Stallings in 1970, and they lived in Wenatchee and Royal City during their married life together.

Survivors include his wife and daughter, Robin Shockey; his sisters, Barbra Zeller and Carmen Denton; sisters-in-law Christy Rushing, Karen Stallings, Lana Granger (Roy), and numerous beloved nieces and nephews. He valued his many dear friends and cherished the fond memories of vacations and fishing trips with many of them over the years.

No funeral service is planned at the present time. Dennis will be deeply missed.

Arrangements assisted by Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.

“ We are so sorry for the loss of Dennis. Doug met Dennis working with him for many years at the Department of Agriculture. He enjoyed visiting with Dennis after his retirement at his home and at the Senior Center. They had great visits and laughs. We will miss his kind heart. Love to the family. Doug & Linda Price
