“ Mitch, my cousin ..I remember when we went fishing with grandpa and a rattle snake dropped down the embankment behind us. You were about 8 years old. With the strength from God I was able to lift you up and move you to safety. I took a big rock and ended up killing that snake.
You thought that was the coolest thing. God saved your life that day and now he has you with him.
I love you and miss you. You're in great hands now and will never be in danger again. I will see you again and maybe we can go fishing again!
