

Dorothy Evelyn Bonar

March 18, 1922 - May 19, 2017

Dorothy Evelyn (Wagg) Bonar, 95, of Wenatchee, WA, passed away Friday, May 19,

2017, under the gentle care of the Blossom Valley Assisted Living facility in Wenatchee, where she was a resident for the last eight years of her life. She was born on March 18, 1922, in Mouth of Wilson, VA, the seventh of 12 children to Samuel and Lessie Wagg. At the age of eight, Evelyn, and five brothers and sisters, traveled by train with their mother from Virginia to Pateros, WA, to join the rest of their family.

Evelyn graduated from Pateros High School, where she was selected as Apple Blossom princess for her community. She married Glen Vroman and had four children. Evelyn lived and worked in Omak, Wenatchee and Chelan before the family returned to Pateros.

Evelyn was preceded in death by her husband, Gordon Bonar; grandson, Jay Truitt; and daughter, Donna (Vroman) Brownlee. She is survived by her son, Rick Vroman, and his wife, Laura Vroman of Yakima, WA; daughter, Gayle McKown of Wenatchee, WA; daughter, Carol Steichen, and husband, Tom Steichen of Wenatchee WA; and nine grandchildren; six great-grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Graveside Services will be held at 11:00 a.m., Friday, June 23, 2017, at the Pateros Cemetery. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA.
