“ Dee was a co-worker and walking buddy in Redmond, WA. We joined many Voksmarches which are measured walks all over Washington. She taught me how to walk with purpose and proper body alignment to get the most out of walking. We walked in also all types of weather nothing ever let her down. She very intelligent, strong of character, a proper lady and spirit filled. She retired first (she was 30 yrs older) but we kept in touch until I retired and we both moved away. She to Wenactchee, WA and I to Sikeston, MO. Family was important to both of us. I know she is in heaven showing the angels how to get organized and follow through with their plans. I was so blessed to have know her.
