

Earl H. Floyd

August 14, 1924 - July 2, 2012

Earl H. Floyd, 87, of Waterville, died Monday, July 2, 2012.

He was a longtime marine engineer and had retired from the Washington State Ferries system in 1991. He had lived in Waterville since his retirement.

Survivors include his wife, June Floyd of Waterville; his sons, Dan Floyd of Puyallup, Chester Floyd of Hudson, Colo., Kelly Floyd of Anchorage, Alaska, and Cecil Floyd of Palouse; his daughters, Sharon Kramer of Bellingham and Peggy Floyd of Moses Lake; and his stepsons, Tony Norris of Pendleton, Ore., and Bill Misemer of Concord, N.C.

A family gathering will be held at a later date, with a military honors service to follow in Texas.

Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.