Edna C. Shiflett

1919 ~ 2018

East Wenatchee, Washington

Edna went to be with the Lord on Jan. 25, 2018. She was born on Dec. 17, 1919 in Roseau, Minnesota to Fritz and Carolyn Johnson, they moved to Wenatchee in 1924 when she was only five.

Mom married the love of her life, Joe (Bud) Shiflett on July 2, 1938. They were married 73 wonderful years until Dad passed away in 2012. She worked many years as a very fast apple packer for several different warehouses until retiring from Wells and Wade. Mom and Dad spent six months out of the year for ten years traveling all over the country in their RV; just holding hands where ever they went and enjoying life. Over the years you would find them together either hunting, fishing, or at a dance sharing good times with their many friends.

Mom was a great cook and loved to have get togethers with family and friends. She liked taking pictures, making ceramics, cake decorating and doing flower arrangements. Mom will be deeply missed by her family.

Edna is survived by two son, Joel (Sharlyn) Shiflett and David (Connie) Shiflett all of Wenatchee; brother, Edward (Darlene) Johnson of East Wenatchee; sister, Mildred Little of Soap Lake; sister-in-law, Carol Samse formerly of Okanogan; brothers-in-law, Richard (Wil'Lena) Shiflett of Omak, Dan (Elaine) Shiflett of Okanogan, Nathan (Sandy) Shiflett of Republic.
