Elva was born on October 6, 1929, to Christian and Mattie (Viebrock) Hinderer at Douglas, WA. When Elva was a young child, her family lived in White Bluffs, WA and then returned to Withrow, WA, where she was schooled. She graduated in 1947 from Almira-Hartline High School. During her early years of marriage, Elva worked for the Douglas County Treasurer's Office. In the late 1950's, the Ogle's moved to East Wenatchee and Elva became employed with Mid State Electronics. Roy preceded Elva in death in April 1971. Elva then met Leo Choquette of Spokane and married him in November of 1979. They enjoyed many years together, traveling in their RV, fishing, and even river-rafting. Leo preceded Elva in death in November 1990. Elva was a talented seamstress and her quilts and crafts were always a hit at Columbia Heights, where she lived. The yearly craft show always displayed her talents.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this difficult time. I always enjoyed visiting with Elva on the few occasions when I went to her place with Stan to visit. I didn't know her well, but enjoyed being around her. She always had such a warm smile. A special memory I have is of the Christmas she shared with us when Stan and Darlene, Chris & Keisha, Martin, and Diane came to Wenatchee and joined our family, John & I and Amanda, and our (Stan and mine) mom and dad, Cal & Virginia. That Christmas will always be special because it was so nice having so much of the family together for the holiday. It was even more special for me to be able to blend the familys a bit too. I only wish we had done something like that many years ago. Elva will be missed by all the lives she touched.
