

Enid Crook

February 12, 1928 - January 31, 2023

Enid Lois Crook was born February 12, 1928 to K.V. and Enid Moore in Chelan, WA. She was the youngest of three siblings, having two older brothers. Enid graduated from Chelan High School in 1946 and later attended a secretarial school in Wenatchee. She worked for a number of years at Cascadian Fruit.

In May of 1959 she married Howard Crook in Coeur d'Alene, ID. After Howard's first wife died leaving him with a baby daughter, Kathy, he and Enid were married. To their union was born another daughter Karen. Enid and Howard hunted together and traveled together. She was part of a lady's golf group at the country club and loved all kinds of crafts. Enid is remembered as loving and generous, yet strong willed and independent. She had a great sense of humor and loved and cared for her family.

After a long and full life, and a short illness on January 31, 2023, Enid passed quietly from this earth into heaven with family members surrounding her.

Enid was predeceased by her parents, husband Howard, both her brothers, Charles and Khleber, her daughter Karen and her niece Judy Spagnole. She is survived by: her daughter and son-in-law, Kathy and Marv Williams of Maple Valley, their two children, Stephanie Tinker of Maple Valley and Brad Williams of Newcastle, and 5 great grandchildren. She is also survived by her son-in-law Ben Umayam of Renton, his children BJ, and Carly both of Anacortes and his 3 grandchildren. Enid is also survived by her sister-in-law, Jean Moore of Wenatchee, 3 nephews, Dennis, Pat and Mike, and numerous friends who will miss her dearly.

A celebration of life will be held, March 4, 11:00am at Mid Valley Baptist Church in Dryden, WA.

Donations may be made to the Wenatchee Valley Humane Society or your local Humane Society.
