

Evelyn Marie Tackett

November 15, 1921 - March 7, 2011

Evelyn (Felty) York Tackett, age 89, of Wenatchee, WA, passed away from this life into Heaven on March 7, 2011. She was born on November 15, 1921, in Raceland, KY, to Jack and Frances Felty. Evelyn was the youngest of five sisters and one brother, all of whom have preceded her in death. After graduating from Raceland High School, Evelyn worked at Kress Variety Store and, during the War, worked at a wartime factory, filling 40 millimeter gun shells. She married her childhood sweetheart, Chester "Arnie" York. In 1947, they moved to Wenatchee, where she managed the Kress store until the store closed. In 1968, her husband passed away and she later married Lee Tackett of Wenatchee, who preceded her in death. Evelyn also worked at Phillippi Fruit and Pacific Fruit Companies in the Wenatchee Valley.

Evelyn is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Funeral Services will be held at Telford's Chapel of the Valley on Friday, March 11, 2011, at 10:00 a.m. The Service will conclude in the Chapel with Private Interment at the Wenatchee City Cemetery. Those who wish, may make memorials to the Wenatchee Valley Humane Society, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, or the American Red Cross for Chelan and Douglas Counties. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
