

Fern Campbell

July 12, 2009

Fern Campbell, beloved wife, mother, grandmother & friend, died Sunday, July 12, 2009. She left behind her children, Bonnie & Clint Campbell, and her very special grand children, Travis & Daniel. Born to Bert & Mable Eminger, on May 19, 1920 in Wenatchee WA. Her singing career in her high school days received attention from the Julliard School of Music. She attended Whitman College & the UW, earning her BA degree in Music. During WWII she was stationed with the Red Cross at Fort George Wright, in Spokane WA. She was a lifelong resident of Chelan, married to Dan Campbell for 46 years. Graveside Services will be held at the Fraternal Cemetery, Saturday, July 18, 2009 in Chelan, at 10:00 AM