

Frank Wilson

August 11, 1971 - October 22, 2015

Frank Wilson, age 44, passed away October 22, 2015, at Blewett Pass. He was partners with Darcy Klingenberg, and they shared 14 years together. He was born in Santa Rosa, CA on August 11, 1971, son of George Wilson of Oroville, WA and Roxanne Chiurco of Napa, CA. He attended Sedro-Woolley High School in Washington. He was self-employed and worked in construction. He enjoyed concrete finishing, but he could do any job title in construction. Frank enjoyed hunting, fishing, gold dredging, and playing music with friends and family. He will always be remembered as a man of all men. He was very talented and could do anything he wanted to do, and no one could tell him any other way but his own. He had a smile that could light up the world, laugh you could never forget, and he was very humble and never wanted more than what he had.

Frank was a hard working man, happy with what he had and did not take a hand out from anyone. He had a strong personality and helped anyone that came to him.

Frank had one daughter, Ashley Cox of Oklahoma; four sisters, Sherry

Langdon

of Oroville, WA, Anna Wilson of Oroville, WA, Jeanette Wilson of Tanasket, WA, and Bea Duenas of Oroville, WA. He was companions with Darcy Klingenberg, with her son, Zane.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, November 21, 2015, at Telford's Chapel of the Valley at 10:30 a.m. with Jamie Wilhite officiating.

Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
