Gary Alan Kusler

Wenatchee, WA

Gary Alan Kusler went to be with his Lord and Savior on January 25, 2012, with his loving wife, Janet, by his side. Gary was born July 7, 1954, to William and Edith Kusler in Omak, WA. Gary lived in the Spokane and Yakima areas, before settling in Wenatchee in 1977. Gary worked many jobs around the Wenatchee Valley, including Red Robin, Taco Bell, Mission Vista and Safeway. In 1995, Gary married the love of his life, Janet Simpson. Gary and Janet loved music, bowling, celebrating holidays and attending church together. They were members of St. Joseph's Catholic Church and both were baptized there on July 22, 2007.

Gary is survived by his loving wife, Janet at home; and one brother, Don Kusler (Cheryl) in Arizona. Gary was preceded in death by his parents.

Janet and their friends would like to thank the doctors and nursing staff at Central Washington Hospital for the loving care given to Gary.
