

George L. Roman

April 22, 1929 - March 30, 2019

George L. Roman, 89, passed away and went to his Father and Savior on March 30, 2019, with his wife, Shirley and step-daughter, Sherry, at his side. George was born on April 22, 1929, in Egypt, PA, to Stephon and Maria Roman.

George worked in many factories in Pennsylvania, then joined the Army, in 1950 to 1953, being in the Korean War. He received three medals of honor, three bronze stars, and a medal from Signrei, Korea. He was wounded while in Korea, fighting with his batallion and was hit with a mortar. George was blown in the air, and wounded in his face and knees, as he landed on his knees.

George was a gypsy. He loved to be on the move. He left Pennsylvania after the service. He had been through Seattle, WA, when he came home from Korea. So, after trying to get settled at home, the West Coast beckoned him to Seattle. He started a landscaping business. He didn't like the Seattle area, so he then moved to Wenatchee, WA, where he started Wenatchee Landscaping. The rest is history. George was a great dancer. He was known as "Polka George". He also entertained with his harmonica.

He found the love of his life, Shirley, in 1998. They spent 20 years of happiness together.

George is survived by his wife, Shirley; step-daughter, Sherry; step-sons, Larry and Terry; daughter-in-law, Mary; twin grandsons, Chris and Zack; granddaughter, Danielle; his son, Larry and daughter, Kathy; eight grandchildren; several great-grandchildren; brother, Paul Roman; numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his brothers; John, Steve, Joe, Mike, Andy; sisters: Margaret and Mary; his parents, Stephon and Maria; his son, Jeff Roman.

A Memorial Graveside service will take place at the Tahoma Veteran's Cemetery, Kent, WA, at a later date.
