Geraldine "Jeri" Mollenhauer

Wenatchee, WA

Geraldine "Jeri" Mollenhauer, 74, of Wenatchee, WA, passed away peacefully in her home on Thursday, January 8, 2015, with her family by her side. Her vivacious personality and vibrant appreciation of life allowed her to beat numerous battles with cancer over the past nine years. In 2001, Jeri and her husband, Ray, moved to Wenatchee to enjoy their retirement years. Jeri's greatest joy in life was her family. She took every opportunity to be involved in her children and grandchildren's lives and interests. Beyond her immediate family, Jeri built a large extended family of friends.

The family would like to express their heartfelt appreciation to the Cancer Care staff at Confluence Health and the staff at Hospice Care. Jeri appreciated the loving attention and kindness she received and valued the friendships she gained.

Survivors include her husband, Ray Mollenhauer; daughters, Annette Hacker, Traci Pierson (Steve), Sue Harris (Tom), and Julie Lindholm (Aaron); sister, Shirley Nettleton (Russell); sister-in-law, Diane Underwood (Vic); 15 grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A Celebration of Jeri's Life will be held Saturday, January 24, 2015, at 11:30 a.m. at the Best Western Conference room in Dayton, WA. Memorial donations, in Jeri's name, may be made to a local branch of the Humane Society.
